WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1860.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 21ST JANUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 11th January 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 25th of April next:—

A Bill relating to the solemnization of Marriages in India, by ordained Ministers of the Church of Scotland.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the 58th year of the reign of King George the 3rd, entitled Preamble.
 “An Act to remove doubts as to the validity of certain Marriages had and solemnized within the British Territories in India,” it was declared and enacted (amongst other things) that from and after the 31st day of December then next ensuing all marriages between persons, both or one of such persons being members or member of, or holding communion with the Church of Scotland, and making a declaration to the effect thereinafter mentioned, which marriages should be had and solemnized within the British Territories in India by ordained Ministers of the Church of Scotland as by law established, and appointed by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies to officiate as Chaplains within the said territories, should be, and should be adjudged, esteemed, and taken to be of the same, and no other force and effect, as if such marriages were had and solemnized by Clergymen of the Church of England, according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England: and whereas it is expedient that so much of the said Act of Parliament as requires ordained Ministers of the Church of Scotland celebrating such marriages to be also persons appointed to officiate as Chaplains within the said Territories, should cease to have effect; It is enacted as follows:—

I. So much of the said Act of Parliament as requires that the ordained Ministers of the Church of Scotland as by law established therein referred to should be persons appointed to officiate as Chaplains within the said Territories, is hereby repealed.

W. MORGAN,
 Clerk of the Council.

THE 21ST JANUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 21st January 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 25th of April next:—

A Bill for the levy of Port-dues in the Port of Bassein.

WHEREAS it is necessary to fix the amount of the Port-dues to be hereafter levied and taken in the Port of Bassein, in accordance with the provisions of Act XXII of 1855; It is enacted as follows:—

I. A Port-due at a rate not exceeding the rate of four annas per every ton of burden, shall be chargeable in respect of every sea-going vessel of the burden of ten tons and upwards which shall enter the said Port.

II. When any vessel enters the said Port, being driven in by stress of weather, or in consequence of having sustained any damage, or for any other reason, but does not discharge or take in any cargo or passenger therein (with the exception of such un-shipment and re-shipment as may be necessary for the purpose of repair), the Port-due chargeable in respect of such vessel shall be at a rate equal to one-half the rate chargeable in respect of other vessels.

III. Provided that, when any vessel having left the said Port is compelled to re-enter it by stress of weather or in consequence of having sustained any damage, no Port-due shall be chargeable in respect of such vessel.

No vessel to pay the Port-due oftener than once in sixty days.

IV. No vessel shall be required to pay the Port-due chargeable under this Act oftener than once in sixty days.

V. This Act shall commence and have effect from and after the Commencement of Act.

; and the local Government shall on or before that date, pursuant to Section XLII Act XXII of 1855, declare, by notification to be published in the Calcutta Gazette, the rates at which

Port-dues shall be levied in the said Port subject to the provisions of and within the limits prescribed by this Act; and from and after the said date no Port-due shall be levied at the said Port except under the authority of Act XXII of 1855, and of this Act.

VI. This Act shall be read with and taken as a part of Act XXII of 1855.

No. 250.

Fort William, the 23rd January 1860.

Notification.—The following Resolution, passed by the Hon'ble the President in Council, in the Financial Department, under date the 6th instant, is published for general information :—

RESOLUTION.—The Officiating Civil Auditor, Fort William, enquires, with advertence to the case of Major Bouverie, Political Agent at Bhurtpore, whether, in the case of a Military Officer entering upon Civil employ, his score for privilege leave under the Civil Rules must commence from the date of joining his Civil appointment, or whether it must be calculated by the usual reckoning of 11, 22, or 33 months of uninterrupted service, irrespective of the Department (Civil or Military) in which such service may have been rendered.

2. Referring to this question, the President in Council observes that, when it was laid down that two or three months' accumulated privilege leave could be granted, under the Civil Rules, to Military Officers in Civil employ, it was intended that such leave should be earned by continuous Service of the required number of months in the Civil Department alone.

By Order of the Hon'ble the President in Council.

DEPUTY COMMISSARY GENERAL'S OFFICE, C. C. ;
LUCKNOW,
The 9th January 1860.

A. D. DICKENS,
Officiating Assistant Commissary General,
for Deputy Commissary General, C. C.

The Calcutta Gazette.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 28, 1860.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 21ST JANUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 14th January 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 25th of April next:—

4 Bill relating to the solemnization of Marriages in India, by ordained Ministers of the Church of Scotland.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the 58th year of the reign of

Preamble.

King George the 3rd, entitled

"An Act to remove doubts as to the validity of certain Marriages had and solemnized within the British Territories in India," it was declared and enacted (amongst other things) that from and after the 31st day of December then next ensuing all marriages between persons, both or one of such persons being members or member of, or holding communion with the Church of Scotland, and making a declaration to the effect thereinafter mentioned, which marriages should be had and solemnized within the British Territories in India by ordained Ministers of the Church of Scotland as by law established, and appointed by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies to officiate as Chaplains within the said territories, should be, and should be adjudged, esteemed, and taken to be of the same, and no other force and effect, as if such marriages were had and solemnized by Clergymen of the Church of England, according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England: and whereas it is expedient that so much of the said Act of Parliament as requires ordained Ministers of the Church of Scotland celebrating such marriages to be also persons appointed to officiate as Chaplains within the said Territories, should cease to have effect; It is enacted as follows:—

I. So much of the said Act of Parliament as requires that the ordained Ministers of the Church of Scotland, by law established therein referred to, should be persons appointed to officiate as Chaplains within the said Territories, is hereby repealed.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 21ST JANUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 21st January 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 25th of April next:—

1 Bill for the levy of Port-dues in the Port of Bassein.

WHEREAS it is necessary to fix the amount of the Port-dues to be hereafter levied and taken in the Port of Bassein, in accordance with the provisions of Act XXII of 1855; It is enacted as follows:—

I. A Port-due at a rate not exceeding the rate of four annas per every ton of burden, shall be chargeable in respect of every sea-going vessel of the burden of ten tons and upwards entering the Port.

II. When any vessel enters the said Port, being driven in by stress of weather, or in consequence of having sustained any damage, or for any other reason, but does not discharge or take in any cargo or passenger therein (with the exception of such un-shipment and re-shipment as may be necessary for the purpose of repair), the Port-due chargeable in respect of such vessel shall be at a rate equal to one-half the rate chargeable in respect of other vessels.

III. Provided that, when any vessel having left the said Port is compelled to re-enter it by stress of weather or in consequence of having sustained any damage, no Port-due shall be chargeable in respect of such vessel.

No vessel to pay the Port-due oftener than once in sixty days.

IV. No vessel shall be required to pay the Port-due chargeable under this Act oftener than once in sixty days.

V. This Act shall commence and have effect from and after the Commencement of Act. ; and the local Government shall on or before that date, pursuant to Section XLII Act XXII of 1855, declare, by notification to be published in the Calcutta Gazette, the rates at which Port-dues shall be levied in the said Port subject to the provisions of and within the limits prescribed by this Act; and from and after the said date no Port-due shall be levied at the said Port except under the authority of Act XXII of 1855, and of this Act.

VI. This Act shall be read with and taken as a part of Act XXII of 1855.

—Notification.—The following Resolution, passed by the Hon'ble the President in Council, in the Financial Department, under date the 6th instant, is published for general information:—

RESOLUTION.—The Officiating Civil Auditor, Fort William, enquires, with advertence to the case of Major Bouverie, Political Agent at Bhurt-pore, whether, in the case of a Military Officer entering upon Civil employ, his score for privilege leave under the Civil Rules must commence from the date of joining his Civil appointment, or whether it must be calculated by the usual reckoning of 11, 22, or 33 months of uninterrupted service, irrespective of the Department (Civil or Military) in which such service may have been rendered.

2. Referring to this question, the President in Council observes that, when it was laid down that two or three months' accumulated privilege leave could be granted, under the Civil Rules, to Military Officers in Civil employ, it was intended that such leave should be earned by continuous Service of the required number of months in the Civil Department alone.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,

GENERAL—ESTABLISHMENTS.

The 26th January 1860

NOTIFICATION.

THE Hon'ble the President in Council, with the concurrence of His Excellency the Vice roy and Governor General, is pleased to sanction the following revision of the Engineer Establishment attached to the Government of Bengal, which has been arranged without increase of expense. The revised arrangement will come into operation as soon as effect can be given to the several changes sanctioned.

2. The Chief Engineer is relieved of the audit and supervision of Accounts, and will, instead, be entrusted with the duties of Secretary to the Government of Bengal in the Public Works Department, without ceasing to have a substantive control over the Department as Chief Engineer. He will be styled in future Chief Engineer, and Secretary to the Government of Bengal in the Public Works Department.

3. The audit of Accounts and control of the Central Office will be placed under a separate Officer called the Controller and Auditor of Public Works Accounts, who will be entrusted with the power of audit heretofore exercised by the Chief Engineer, subject to special rules, which will be issued separately, defining his relations with the Superintending Engineers.

4. The number of Superintending Engineers, heretofore too small for the large extent of Territory under the Lieutenant Governor of Bengal, will be increased to seven, the four additional Officers of this grade being on lower salaries than the present Superintending Engineers, as shown in the scale of Establishment below. The details of supervision of the operations of the Department will be more completely left to the Superintending Engineers.

5. The number of Officers in the higher classes of the grade of Executive Engineer will be reduced, retaining the required number in the grade on the whole, so as to provide for the increased expense of the additional Superintending Engineers.

6. The additional Offices of the Superintending Engineers will be provided from the saving effected by the amalgamation of the Chief Engineer's Office with that of the Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

7. The Central Office of Account will for the present undergo no change

8. The scale of Engineer Establishment for Bengal (exclusive of Assistant Engineers) will therefore be as follows :—

						SALARIES.
						Military Staff	Civil Consolidated.
1 Chief Engineer and Secretary to the Government of Bengal in the Public Works Department.						Until further orders as in the P. W. Code, for Chief Engr., 1st Class.
1 Controller and Auditor of the Public Works Accounts .						800	1,200
3 Superintending Engineers of the 1st Class						800	1,200
2 " of the 2nd " 						700	1,000
2 " of the 3rd " 						600	900
1 Executive Engineer of the 1st Class .						600	900
6 " of the 2nd " 						500	750
11 " of the 3rd " 						400	600
12 " of the 4th " 						300	500
4 Officers from the Upper Subordinate Establishment to have Executive charges						100	100
						Extra allowance for the charge.

N. B.—The Assistant to the Chief Engineer and Secretary is included amongst the Officers of the grade of Executive Engineer.

9. The new Offices are filled up as follows—

Lieut. Colonel C. B. Young, Officiating Chief Engineer, to officiate as Chief Engineer and Secretary to Government, Bengal, in the Public Works Department.

Captain R. de Bourbel, Assistant to the Chief Engineer, to be Assistant to the Chief Engineer and Secretary to Government, Bengal, in the Public Works Department.

Mr. F. R. Boyce, Offg. Asst. to the Chief Engr. to Officiate as Assistant to the Chief Engr. and Secretary while Capt. de Bourbel is acting as Under Secy. to the Govt. of India, or till further orders.

Captain C. H. Dickens to be Controller and Auditor of Public Works Accounts.

Major G. Chesney to Officiate while Capt. Dickens is acting as Secy. to the Govt. of India, or till further orders.

Captain A. Impey, Offg. Supg. Engineer 1st Class, to be Supg. Engineer 2nd Class, but to continue to Officiate in the 1st Class.

Captain W. D. A. R. Short, to be Supg. Engineer, 2nd Class.

Captain J. C. Harris, to be Supg. Engineer 3rd Class, and to Officiate as Supg. Engineer 2nd Class, vice Capt. Impey.

Mr. H. Leonard, c. e., to be Supg. Engineer, 3rd Class.

Lieut. Colonel D. Reid, to officiate as Supg. Engineer 3rd Class, vice Capt. Harris.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1860.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 28TH JANUARY 1860.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 15th January 1860 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 28th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

Act No. II of 1860.

An Act to amend the law relating to the carriage of Passengers by Sea.

WHEREAS by Section XCIX of an Act of the Imperial Parliament called "The Passengers Act 1855," it is enacted that "it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, from time to time, by any Act or Acts to be passed for that purpose, to declare that this Act or any part thereof shall apply to the carriage of passengers upon any voyage from any Ports or places within the Territories of British India, to be specified in such Act or Acts, to any other places whatsoever, to be also specified in such Act or Acts:" and it is thereby also enacted that "on the passing of such Indian Act or Acts, and whilst the same shall remain in force, all such parts of this Act as shall be adopted therein shall apply to and extend to the carriage of passengers upon such voyages as in the said Indian Act or Acts shall be specified. The provisions of such Indian Act shall be enforced in all Her Majesty's possessions in like manner as the provisions of this Act may be enforced." And whereas it is expedient to make certain parts of the said Act of Parliament applicable to the carriage of Passengers upon the voyages hereinafter specified: It is enacted as follows:—

I. The provisions contained in Sections II, III, and IV of this Act (being parts of the said Act of Parliament) are declared applicable to the carriage of Passengers, upon the following voyages:—

Voyages from the Ports of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, to the Mauritius, under Act XV of 1842.

Voyages from the Ports of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, to Jamaica, British Guiana, and Trinidad, under Act XXI of 1844.

Voyages from the Ports of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, to St. Lucia and Grenada, under Act XXXI of 1855.

Voyages from Ports in British India, to Ports in the Red Sea or Persian Gulf, under Act XXI of 1858.

II. If the Passengers on any such voyage as is specified in the last preceding Section, shall be taken off from the ship carrying such Passengers, or shall be picked up at Sea from any boat, raft, or otherwise, it shall be lawful, if the Port or place to which they shall be conveyed shall be in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, possessions, for the Governor of such Colony, or for any person authorized by him for the purpose, or if in any Foreign country, for Her Majesty's Consular Officer at such Port or place therein, to defray all or any part of the expenses thereby incurred.

III. If any Passenger of any such Passenger ship as aforesaid shall, without any neglect or default of his own, find himself within any Colonial or Foreign Port or place other than that at which he may have contracted to land, it shall be lawful for the Governor of such Colony, or for any person authorized by him for the purpose, or for Her Majesty's Consular Officer at such Foreign Port or place, as the case may be, to forward such Passenger to his intended destination, unless the Master of such ship shall, within forty-eight hours of the arrival of such Passenger, give to the Governor or Consular Officer, as the case may be, a written undertaking to forward or carry on within six weeks thereafter such Passenger to his original destination, and, unless such Master shall accordingly forward or carry him on within that period.

IV. All expenses incurred under the last two preceding Sections or either of them, by or by the authority of such Governor or Consular Officer as aforesaid, including the cost of maintaining the Passengers until forwarded to their destination, and of all necessary beddings, provisions, and stores, shall become a debt to Her Majesty and Her successors from the Owner, Charterer, and Master of such ship, and shall be recoverable from them, or from any one or more of them, at the suit and for the use of Her Majesty, in like manner as in the case of other Crown debts; and a certificate purporting to be under the hand of any such Governor or Consular Officer (as the case may be) stating the total amount of such expenses shall in any suit or other proceeding for the recovery of such debt be received in evidence without proof of the hand-writing or of the Official character of such Governor or Consular Officer, and shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the amount of such expenses, and that the same were duly incurred. Provided nevertheless that in no case shall any larger sum be recovered on account of such expenses than a sum equal to twice the total amount of passage money received by the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Passenger ship or any of them, from or on account of the whole number of Passengers who may have embarked in such ship; which total amount of passage money shall be proved by the defendant if he will have the advantage of this limitation of the debt: but if any such Passengers are forwarded or conveyed to their intended destination under the provisions of the last preceding Section, they shall not be entitled to the return of their passage money, or to any compensation for loss of passage.

Expenses incurred under the two preceding Sections to be a Crown debt.

Passengers forwarded by Governor, &c., not entitled to compensation.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 28TH JANUARY 1860.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor-General on the 16th January 1860 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 28th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. III OF 1860.

An Act to empower Sessions Judges to pass sentence in certain cases without reference to the Sudder Court.

WHEREAS it is expedient to empower Sessions Judges in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, to pass sentence in certain trials without reference to the Nizamut Adawlut; and whereas it is likewise expedient to remove the restriction now imposed by law upon Sessions Judges in regard to the minimum of punishment which they are competent to inflict in cases of perjury and certain cases of forgery described in Clause 2 Section IX Regulation XVII. 1817; It is enacted as follows:—

I. Clause 3 Section VI and Clause 3 Section IX Regulation XVII. 1817 of the Bengal Code are hereby repealed; and Section IX of the same Regulation, and Section IV Regulation VI. 1832 of the same Code, are hereby modified.

Laws repealed and modified.

II. When a person is convicted of the crime of rape, if the circumstances of the case shall not appear to call for a more severe punishment than imprisonment for seven years with labor in irons, the Sessions Judge before whom the trial is held shall himself pass sentence.

Sentence by Sessions Judge in case of conviction of rape.

III. When a person is convicted in a trial held under the provisions of Regulation VI. 1832, of a crime declared by a precedent of the Nizamut Adawlut to be a penal offence, if the circumstances of the case shall not appear to call for a more severe punishment than seven years' imprisonment with labor in irons, the Sessions Judge before whom the trial is held shall himself pass sentence. If, however, the crime of which the person has been convicted has not been declared to be a penal offence by a precedent of the Nizamut Adawlut, the Sessions Judge shall not proceed to pass sentence, but shall refer the case for the consideration of the Nizamut Adawlut, stating at length in the proceedings the opinion of the punchayet, assessors, or jury, and his own opinion, as to the crime proved and the nature and extent of the punishment which should be awarded.

Sentence by Sessions Judge in case of conviction of a crime declared by the Sudder Court to be a penal offence.

IV. When a person is convicted of the crime of perjury or subornation of perjury or of forgery or of procuring forgery, as defined and made punishable by Regulations II. 1807 and XVII. 1817 of the Bengal Code, the Sessions Judge shall pass such sentence on the offender as he may consider adequate to the offence in reference to the particular circumstances of the case; provided that he shall in no case exceed the limit of the powers vested in him by Clause 2 Section IX of the Regulation last mentioned.

Sentence by Sessions Judge in case of conviction of perjury or forgery.

V. If in any case coming under the provisions of this Act, the Sessions Judge shall consider the sentence which he is empowered to pass inadequate to the guilt of the prisoner, he shall refer the case, with his sentiments, for the sentence of the Nizamut Adawlut in conformity to Section VI Act XXXI of 1841, which is hereby declared applicable to such cases.

Sessions Judge may refer a case to the Sudder Court.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 21ST JANUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 14th January 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 25th of April next:—

A Bill relating to the solemnization of Marriages in India, by ordained Ministers of the Church of Scotland.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the 58th year of the reign of King George the 3rd, entitled

“An Act to remove doubts as to the validity of certain Marriages had and solemnized within the British Territories in India,” it was declared and enacted (amongst other things) that from and after the 31st day of December then next ensuing all marriages between persons, both or one of such persons being members or member of, or holding communion with the Church of Scotland, and making a declaration to the effect thereafter mentioned, which marriages should be had and solemnized within the British Territories in India by ordained Ministers of the Church of Scotland as by law established, and appointed by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies to officiate as Chaplains within the said territories, should be, and should be adjudged, esteemed, and taken to be of the same, and no other force and effect, as if such marriages were had and solemnized by Clergymen of the Church of England, according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England: and whereas it is expedient that so much of the said Act of Parliament as requires ordained Ministers of the Church of Scotland celebrating such marriages to be also persons appointed to officiate as Chaplains within the said Territories, should cease to have effect; It is enacted as follows:—

I. So much of the said Act of Parliament as requires that the ordained Ministers of the Church of Scotland as by law established therein referred to should be persons appointed to officiate as Chaplains within the said Territories, is hereby repealed.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 21ST JANUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 21st January 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 25th of April next:—

A Bill for the levy of Port-dues in the Port of Basscin.

WHEREAS it is necessary to fix the amount of the Port-dues to be hereafter levied and taken in the Port of Basscin, in accordance with the provisions of Act XXII of 1855; It is enacted as follows:—

I. A Port-due at a rate not exceeding the rate of four annas per every ton of burden, shall be chargeable in respect of every sea-going vessel of the burden of ten tons and upwards which shall enter the said Port.

II. When any vessel enters the said Port, being driven in by stress of weather, or in consequence of having sustained any damage, or for any other reason, but does not discharge or take in any cargo or passenger therein (with the exception of such un-shipment and re-shipment as may be necessary for the purpose of repair), the Port-due chargeable in respect of such vessel shall be at a rate equal to one-half the rate chargeable in respect of other vessels.

III. Provided that, when any vessel having left the said Port is compelled to re-enter it by stress of weather or in consequence of having sustained any damage, no Port-due shall be chargeable in respect of such vessel.

IV. No vessel shall be required to pay the Port-due chargeable under this Act oftener than once in sixty days.

V. This Act shall commence and have effect from and after the Commencement of Act. ; and the local Government shall on or before that date, pursuant to Section XLII Act XVII of 1855, declare, by notification to be published in the Calcutta Gazette, the rates at which Port-dues shall be levied in the said Port subject to the provisions of and within the limits prescribed by this Act; and from and after the said date no Port-due shall be levied at the said Port except under the authority of Act XXII of 1855, and of this Act.

VI. This Act shall be read with and taken as a part of Act XXII of 1855.

Act to be read as part of Act XXII of 1855.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 28TH JANUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 28th January 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 1st of May next:—

A Bill to amend Act XVI of 1856 (to consolidate and amend the law relating to the Abkaree Revenue in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to increase the rate of duty levied on spirits manufactured at distilleries worked according to the English method, and otherwise to amend Act XXI of 1856; It is enacted as follows:—

I. So much of Section VII Act XXI of 1856 as prescribes that the duty leviable on spirits manufactured at distilleries worked according to the English method, for the imperial gallon of the strength of London proof, shall be one Rupee—is hereby repealed; and on and after the 21st January 1860 it shall be lawful for the Government to levy the duty as aforesaid at the rate of three Rupees.

II. When any person is sentenced to pay any fine or forfeiture under the said Act, such person in default of payment of the same may be imprisoned by order of the Magistrate for any term not exceeding two months when the amount of the fine or forfeiture shall not exceed fifty Rupees, or for any term not exceeding four months when the amount of the fine or forfeiture shall not exceed two hundred Rupees, or for any term not exceeding six months when the amount of the fine or forfeiture shall exceed two hundred Rupees; but in any case the imprisonment shall determine upon the payment of the fine or forfeiture adjudged.

III. Every Collector or other Officer is hereby indemnified for any thing done on and after the said 21st of January 1860 in collecting or enforcing the duty leviable under the 1st Section of this Act, or by virtue of any order of Government heretofore made authorizing the levy of any such duty, or in otherwise carrying out this Act; and no action or other proceeding shall be maintained against any such Collector or other Officer in respect of any thing so done.

IV. This Act and Act XXI of 1856 as hereby amended shall be read as one Act.

GENERAL ORDERS BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

Camp Umballa, 19th January 1860.

His Excellency the Governor General is pleased to authorize the restoration to the Service, in his former position, of Deodiyal Fawarry, Subadar of the 33rd Regiment, Native Infantry, with arrears of pay at Furlough rates from the date on which he was struck off the strength of his Corps.

The 20th January 1860.

The appointment of Assistant Surgeon J. L. Stewart, of the 14th Punjab Infantry, to the Medical charge of the 1st Punjab Infantry, vice Assistant Surgeon Jackson, published in General Order by the Governor General, dated the 7th instant, is hereby cancelled.

His Excellency the Governor General is pleased to promote Shauk Buldie, Sepoy, 3rd Company, Loyal Poorbeah Regiment, late of the 36th Regiment, Native Infantry, to the rank of Havildar, for his excellent conduct on the occasion of the Mutiny of the 36th Native Infantry at Jullunder.

His Excellency the Governor General is pleased to direct the following arrangements:—

The Station of Futehghurh is transferred from the Cawnpore to the Meerut Division; and the Stations West of the Jumna, now comprised in the former Division, are transferred to the Gwalior Command.

The Oude and Cawnpore Divisions will henceforward be amalgamated; the Head Quarters of the General Officer Commanding will be at Lucknow.

A Brigadier of the 2nd Class will be appointed to the Command of the Station of Cawnpore.

The Gwalior Force is constituted a 1st Class Brigade Command, on the same footing as the Rohilund and Saugor Districts.

The foregoing arrangements are to have effect from the date of the departure of Major Generals Sir J. E. W. Inglis, K. C. B., Sir J. H. Grant, K. C. B., and Brigadier General Sir R. Napier, K. C. B., from the Cawnpore, Oude, and Gwalior Divisions respectively.

Military Department.

Fort William, the 21st January 1860.

No. 103 of 1860.—The following Notifications, from the Foreign Department, are published in General Orders;—

No. 173, Camp Magul-ke-Serai, the 21st January 1860.—Lieutenant H. Phillpotts, Second in Command of the Mhar Regiment, is appointed to officiate as an Assistant to the Governor General's Agent for the States of Rajpootana, in the room of Captain Beynon.

No. 175.—Captain W. H. Hawes, of the 63rd Native Infantry, having resigned his appointment of Deputy Commissioner in Oude, his services are replaced at the disposal of the Military Department.

The services of Captain Hawes are placed at the disposal of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief.

No. 104 of 1860.—The following Notifications, from the Public Works Department, are published in General Orders :—

No. 18.—Fort William, the 26th January 1860.—Notification.—The Hon'ble the President in Council, with the concurrence of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General, is pleased to sanction the following revision of the Engineer Establishment attached to the Government of Bengal, which has been arranged without increase of expense. The revised arrangement will come into operation as soon as effect can be given to the several changes sanctioned.

2. The Chief Engineer is relieved of the audit and supervision of Accounts, and will, instead, be entrusted with the duties of Secretary to the Government of Bengal in the Public Works Department, without ceasing to have a substantive control over the Department as Chief Engineer. He will be styled in future Chief Engineer and Secretary to the Government of Bengal in the Public Works Department.

3. The audit of Accounts and control of the Central Office will be placed under a separate Officer, called the Controller and Auditor of Public Works Accounts, who will be entrusted with the power of audit heretofore exercised by the Chief Engineer, subject to special rules, which will be issued separately, defining his relations with the Superintending Engineer.

1. The number of Superintending Engineers, heretofore too small for the large extent of Territory under the Lieutenant Governor of Bengal, will be increased to seven, the four additional Officers of this grade being on lower salaries than the present Superintending Engineers, as shown in the scale of Establishment below. The details of supervision of the operations of the Department will be more completely left to the Superintending Engineers.

5. The number of Officers in the higher classes of the grade of Executive Engineer will be reduced, retaining the required number in the grade on the whole, so as to provide for the increased expense of the additional Superintending Engineer.

6. The additional Officers of the Superintending Engineers will be provided from the saving effected by the amalgamation of the Chief Engineer's Office with that of the Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

7. The Central Office of Account will for the present undergo no change

8. The scale of Engineer Establishment for Bengal (exclusive of Assistant Engineers) will therefore be as follows :—

				SALARIES.
				Mily. Staff.	Civil Consolidated.
1 Chief Engineer and Secretary to the Government of Bengal in the Public Works Department.				Until further orders as in the P. W. Code, for Chief Engr., 1st Class.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 28TH JANUARY 1860.*

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honourable the Governor General on the 15th January 1860 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 28th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. II of 1860.

An Act to amend the law relating to the carriage of Passengers by Sea.

WHEREAS by Section XCIX of an Act of the Imperial Parliament called "The Passengers Act 1855," it is enacted that "it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, from time to time, by any Act or Acts to be passed for that purpose, to declare that this Act or any part thereof shall apply to the carriage of passengers upon any voyage from any Ports or places within the Territories of British India, to be specified in such Act or Acts, to any other places whatsoever, to be also specified in such Act or Acts;" and it is thereby also enacted that "on the passing of such Indian Act or Acts, and whilst the same shall remain in force, all such parts of this Act as shall be adopted therein shall apply to and extend to the carriage of passengers upon such voyages as in the said Indian Act or Acts shall be specified. The provisions of such Indian Act shall be enforced in all Her Majesty's possessions in like manner as the provisions of this Act may be enforced." And whereas it is expedient to make certain parts of the said Act of Parliament applicable to the carriage of Passengers upon the voyages hereinafter specified: It is enacted as follows :—

I. The provisions contained in Sections II, III, and IV of this Act (being parts of the said Act of Parliament) are declared applicable to the carriage of Passengers, upon the following voyages :—

Voyages from the Ports of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, to the Mauritius, under Act XV of 1844,

Voyages from the Ports of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, to Jamaica, British Guiana, and Trinidad, under Act XXI of 1814.

Voyages from the Ports of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, to St. Lucia and Grenada, under Act XXXI of 1855.

Voyages from Ports in British India, to Ports in the Red Sea or Persian Gulf, under Act XXI of 1858.

II. If the Passengers on any such voyage as is specified in the last preceding Section, shall be taken off from the ship carrying such Passengers, or shall be picked up at Sea from any boat, raft, or otherwise, it shall be lawful, if the Port or place to which they shall be conveyed shall be in any of Her Majesty's Colonial possessions, for the Governor of such Colony, or for any person authorized by him for the purpose, or if in any Foreign country, for Her Majesty's Consular Officer at such Port or place therein, to defray all or any part of the expenses thereby incurred.

III. If any Passenger of any such Passenger ship as aforesaid shall, without any neglect or default of his own, find himself within any Colonial or Foreign Port or place other than that at which he may have contracted to land, it shall be lawful for the Governor of such Colony, or for any person authorized by him for the purpose, or for Her Majesty's Consular Officer at such Foreign Port or place, as the case may be, to forward such Passenger to his intended destination, unless the Master of such ship shall, within forty-eight hours of the arrival of such Passenger, give to the Governor or Consular Officer, as the case may be, a written undertaking to forward or carry on within six weeks thereafter such Passenger to his original destination, and unless such Master shall accordingly forward or carry him on within that period.

IV. All expenses incurred under the last two preceding Sections or either of them, by or by the authority of such Governor or Consular Officer as aforesaid, including the cost of maintaining the Passengers until forwarded to their destination, and of all necessary beddings, provisions, and stores, shall become a debt to Her Majesty and Her successors from the Owner, Charterer, and Master of such ship, and shall be recoverable from them, or from any one or more of them, at the suit and for the use of Her Majesty, in like manner as in the case of other Crown debts; and a certificate purporting to be under the hand of any such Governor or Consular Officer (as the case may be) stating the total amount of such expenses shall in any suit or other proceeding for the recovery of such debt be received in evidence without proof of the hand-writing or of the Official character of such Governor or Consular Officer, and shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the amount of such expenses, and that the same were duly incurred. Provided nevertheless that in no case shall any larger sum be recovered on account of such expenses than a sum equal to twice the total amount of passage money received by the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Passenger ship or any of them, from or on account of the whole number of Passengers who may have embarked in such ship; which total amount of passage money shall be proved by the defendant if he will have the advantage of this limitation of the debt: but if any such Passengers are forwarded or conveyed to their intended destination under the provisions of the last preceding Section, they shall not be entitled to the return of their passage money, or to any compensation for loss of passage.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 28TH JANUARY 1860.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 16th January 1860 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 28th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. III OF 1860.

An Act to empower Sessions Judges to pass sentence in certain cases without reference to the Sudder Court.

WHEREAS it is expedient to empower Sessions Judges in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, to pass sentence in certain trials without reference to the Nizamut Adawlut; and whereas it is likewise expedient to remove the restriction now imposed by law upon Sessions Judges in regard to the minimum of punishment which they are competent to inflict in cases of perjury and certain cases of forgery described in Clause 2 Section IX Regulation XVII. 1817; It is enacted as follows:—

I. Clause 3 Section VI and Clause 3 Section IX Regulation XVII. 1817 of the Bengal Code are hereby repealed; and Section IX of the same Regulation, and Section IV Regulation VI. 1832 of the same Code, are hereby modified.

II. When a person is convicted of the crime of rape, if the circumstances of the case shall not appear to call for a more severe punishment than imprisonment for seven years with labor in irons, the Sessions Judge before whom the trial is held shall himself pass sentence.

III. When a person is convicted in a trial held under the provisions of Regulation VI. 1832, of a crime declared by a precedent of the Nizamut Adawlut to be a penal offence, if the circumstances of the case shall not appear to call for a more severe punishment than seven years' imprisonment with labor in irons, the Sessions Judge before whom the trial is held shall himself pass sentence. If, however, the crime of which the person has been convicted has not been declared to be a penal offence by a precedent of the Nizamut Adawlut, the Sessions Judge shall not proceed to pass sentence, but shall refer the case for the consideration of the Nizamut Adawlut, stating at length in the proceedings the opinion of the punchayet, assessors, or jury, and his own opinion, as to the crime proved and the nature and extent of the punishment which should be awarded.

IV. When a person is convicted of the crime of perjury or subornation of perjury or of forgery or of procuring forgery, as defined and made punishable by Regulations II. 1807 and XVII. 1817 of the Bengal Code, the Sessions Judge shall pass such sentence on the offender as he may consider adequate to the offence in reference to the particular circumstances of the case; provided that he shall in no case exceed the limit of the powers vested in him by Clause 2 Section IX of the Regulation last mentioned.

V. If in any case coming under the provisions of this Act, the Sessions Judge shall consider the sentence which he is empowered to pass inadequate to the guilt of the prisoner, he shall refer the case, with his sentiments, for the sentence of the Nizamut Adawlut in conformity to Section VI Act XXXI of 1841, which is hereby declared applicable to such cases.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 28TH JANUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 28th January 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 1st of May next :—

A Bill to amend Act XXI of 1856 (to consolidate and amend the law relating to the Abkaree Revenue in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to increase the rate of duty levied on spirits manufactured at distilleries worked according to the English method, and otherwise to amend Act XXI of 1856 ; It is enacted as follows :—

I. So much of Section VII Act XXI of 1856 as prescribes that the duty leviable on spirits manufactured at distilleries worked according to the English method, for the imperial gallon of the strength of London proof, shall be one Rupee—is hereby repealed ; and on and after the 21st January 1860 it shall be lawful for the Government to levy the duty as aforesaid at the rate of three Rupees.

II. When any person is sentenced to pay any fine or forfeiture under the said Act, such person in default of payment of the same may be imprisoned by order of the Magistrate for any term not exceeding two months when the amount of the fine or forfeiture shall not exceed fifty Rupees, or for any term not exceeding four months when the amount of the fine or forfeiture shall not exceed two hundred Rupees, or for any term not exceeding six months when the amount of the fine or forfeiture shall exceed two hundred Rupees ; but in any case the imprisonment shall determine upon the payment of the fine or forfeiture adjudged.

III. Every Collector or other Officer is hereby indemnified for any thing done on and after the said 21st of January 1860 in collecting or enforcing the duty leviable under the 1st Section of this Act, or by virtue of any order of Government heretofore made authorizing the levy of any such duty, or in otherwise carrying out this Act ; and no action or other proceeding shall be maintained against any such Collector or other Officer in respect of any thing so done.

IV. This Act and Act XXI of 1856 as hereby amended shall be read as one Act.

GOVERNOR GENERAL'S CAMP, UMBALLA,

Friday, the 20th January 1860.

Notifications.—On Wednesday the 18th January, His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General held a Durbar, for the private reception of the Chiefs of the Cis-Sutlej States and the Hills about Simla.

The under-mentioned Chiefs had audiences of His Excellency :—

The Maharajah of Patiala,
The Rajah of Jheend,
The Rajah of Nabha,
The Rajah of Kahlloor,
The Rajah of Keonthul,
The Nawab of Mulair Kotla,
The Sirdar of Bussec.

Each Chief was accompanied by some of his nearest relatives and of his Principal Officers of State.

On arrival and departure, the Maharajah of Patiala received a Salute of 17 Guns ; the Rajahs of Jheend and Nabha each a Salute of 11 Guns; and the Rajah of Kuhloor a Salute of 7 Guns.

The Viceroy and Governor General had previously, before the arrival of His Excellency's Camp at Umballa, received a deputation of Officers from the Maharajah of Patiala, and the Rajahs of Jheend and Nabha, with presents, and had conferred Khilluts in return.

His Excellency had also, on the 12th instant, met the Rajah of Jheend in Camp at Kurnaul, with the honors due to his rank.

On Thursday the 19th instant, all the above-mentioned Chiefs, with their relations and attendants, the other Princes, Sirdars, and Principal Native Residents of the Cis-Sutlej States, in the Umballa Division, and the Civil and Military Officers of Umballa and the neighbouring Districts, were received by the Viceroy and Governor General in open Durbar.

When all were assembled, the Viceroy and Governor General, accompanied by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, entered and took his seat under a Royal Salute.

The Maharajah of Patiala sat on His Excellency's right hand.

Each Native Chief and Gentleman present having been introduced to His Excellency, and their customary offerings having been accepted, suitable Khilluts were bestowed on all according to their rank.

In investing the Maharajah of Patiala with his Khillut, the Viceroy and Governor General addressed His Highness in the following words:—

“MAHARAJAH OF PATIALA,

“It is very agreeable to me to have this opportunity of thanking you, personally and in public, for the valuable services which you have rendered to the State. I esteem them not more for the effective aid which they gave to the Forces of the Government, than for the promptness with which they were offered, and for the example of hearty and unhesitating loyalty, which you thereby set before the Queen's subjects in Upper India, from the very beginning of the strife.

“I need not recount those services. They are well known to every one here present; and the history of them is recorded in the history of the operations, by which the British Troops sustained and asserted the power of England, in this part of Her Majesty's dominions. There is no fear therefore of their being forgotten.

“But I desire to assure you, before this Durbar, of the satisfaction which the Queen's Government has had in augmenting your honor and possessions, and of the wish which it entertains, that these may long remain under the rule of descendants of your own, brave and loyal as yourself.

“I have directed that a Grant be prepared, confirming your title to these possessions and to all the privileges attached to them. I have also directed that it be recorded, that if unhappily lineal heirs should fail you, your adoption of a successor from the ancient Phoolkian House, of which your family forms a part, will be recognized and respected.”

To the Rajah of Jheend, His Excellency said:—

“RAJAH OF JHEEND,

“Your cordial adherence to the British Government, during the time when this part of India was harassed by rebellion, the aid which by all means in your power you rendered to the Forces of the Government, and the share which your Troops had in the operations against the mutinous occupants of Delhi, are fresh in my recollection, and in that of all Englishmen in India.

“It is a pleasure to me to congratulate you upon the increase of your territory and dignity, by which your loyalty and good services have been rewarded.

“Your possessions will now be confirmed to you by formal grant, and you may be sure that it is the desire of the Queen's Government, that they should continue to be held by you and your heirs for ever, as loyal Feudatories of the Crown.

“Should the succession to them by direct inheritance be unfortunately interrupted, the perpetuation of your Family, by your adoption of an heir from the Phoolkian House, will be in accordance with the wishes of the Paramount Power, and will be gladly recognized.”

And to the Rajah of Nabha the Viceroy and Governor General said:—

“RAJAH OF NABHA,

You have been equally forward and equally earnest, with other Chiefs of your ancient Race, in your support of the authority of the British Government.

“The assistance which you gave to the Queen's Army, in the transport of its heavy Artillery from the Sutlej to Delhi, was a signal and valuable service.

“Your loyalty and zeal have, as in the case of your fellow Chiefs, been marked by rewards and honor, which will assure you of the high esteem in which your conduct is held by the Government.

“Additions have been made to your possessions, and the Grant will be formally confirmed to yourself and your descendants. If these should fail you, your adoption of an heir from amongst the members of the Phoolkian House will be gladly recognized.

“It is the desire of the Queen's Government, that the power and dignity of your loyal family should endure and flourish.”

This opportunity was taken by His Excellency to confer upon Mean Ugger Singh, in conformity with the desire of the Queen's Government, the title of Rajah, and the state of Hindoor, which, on the decease of his putative father, Rajah Ram Singh, had lapsed to the Paramount Power.

His Excellency then addressed Rajah Ugger Singh in the following words:—

“Tell Ugger Singh, whom I am sorry to see unable from sickness to leave his chair, that the services of his father Ram Singh, the late Rajah of Hindoor, are not forgotten; and that although he himself is not in the legitimate line of inheritance, and although the state of Hindoor has, by failure of a successor to Ram Singh, lapsed to the British Government, it will now be regranted to him and to his heirs.

“Tell him, that this is done partly in remembrance of his Father's services, rendered to the British arms at the time of the Nepanese War, and partly as an acknowledgement of his own loyal adherence and service to the Government in 1857.”

After the concluding ceremonies, the Viceroy and Governor General left his seat, under a Royal Salute, accompanied by his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief; and when the Maharajah of Patiala and the Rajahs of Jheend and Nabha had been conducted from the Tent, the assembly broke up.

This day the Viceroy and Governor General, accompanied by the Secretary to the Government of India, and by the Officers of His Excellency's Personal Staff, paid return visits to the Chiefs of Patiala, Jheend and Nabha, at their respective encampments.

His Excellency was met by the Chiefs themselves, and by their relations and Principal Ministers, in accordance with the custom observed on such occasions, and received at each encampment, both on arrival and departure, a Royal Salute.

In each case the usual offerings were presented and accepted, and, the concluding ceremonies having been observed, His Excellency retired.

By Order of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General of India.

BENGAL CIVIL FUND.

At a Half-Yearly General Meeting of Subscribers to the Bengal Civil Fund, held on Wednesday the 25th January 1860.

PRESENT:—H. B. Harington, Esq., Hon'ble E. Drummond, Geo. Loch, Esq., W. Grey, Esq., S. Wauchope, Esq., C. T. Buckland, Esq., R. B. Chapman, Esq., J. A. Crawford, Esq., Lord H. Ulick Browne, and J. F. Browne, Esq.

H. B. HARRINGTON, Esq., in the Chair.

READ the following Report submitted by the Managers:—

"The Managers submit their proceedings for the past Half-year for the consideration and sanction of the Meeting.

"Subject to the approval of the Subscribers they have admitted to the benefits of the Fund the following families:—

Mrs Jenkins	£ 300
Four Children	" 200
			£ 500
Mrs. Drummond	£ 300
Four Children	" 120
			£ 420
Loss 3 under Rule 7	" 70
			£ 350
C. E. Jenkins (less 3th)	£ 30

*.Property and Private Income.

Mr. Smith's property at his death was valued at	Rs. 1,29,600
He bequeathed to Widow	Rs. 25,000
Ditto to Son Charles Frederick	" 1,500
and 12 shares in Dacca Bank	" 3,600
Ditto to Grandchild 17	" 5,100
Bonded W. H.	" 5,100
	85,200
	Rs. 94,400
Yielding say @ 4 per cent...	3,770
	or £ 377
This was charged with an annuity of £100 to each of his three Children (one Son and two Daughters living with him at the time of his death) ...	£ 300
Leaving the Widow	£ 77
and from the Rupees 25,000 above specified	100
Widow's private income	£ 177

"The Accounts for the past year 1858-59 are submitted."

The Widow, three Sons, and a Daughter, (the youngest being a posthumous Son born 31st August last,) of the late Mr. Edward Jenkins, who died in London on the 22nd June 1859.

The Widow, three Daughters, and a Son, (the youngest being a posthumous Daughter born on 16th September last,) of the late Mr. F. B. Drummond, who died on board the Ship Alfred on 27th June 1859.

A posthumous Son of the late Mr. Charles Jenkins admitted from date of birth, viz. 16th August 1859, in addition to the Widow who was admitted by the last Meeting from the date of demise of Mr. Jenkins, viz., 23rd May 1859.

"In accordance with the provisions of Article 18 of the Rules, the case of Mrs. Smith, which has been before the Subscribers by separate Circular, is now submitted for the consideration of the Meeting. It appears to the majority of the Managers that Mrs. Smith should have received in 1854 a pension of £223 instead of £82, that being the difference between the private income she possessed of £177* and the maximum pension of £400 allowed under the old Rules of the Fund. A further adjustment of this Will have to be made in 1861, when the final distribution of the property takes place under the Will of the late Mr. Charles Smith.

"Representations having been made to the Managers that Article 7 of the Rules bears unfairly upon the Subscribers, in as much as it seems to convey a greater advantage than is actually obtained, the subject is brought to the notice of the Meeting, so that if any change is regarded as desirable steps may be taken for that purpose.

H. ULICK BROWNE,

Honorary Secretary.

Proposed by Mr. Crawford, seconded by Mr. Chayman and carried unanimously, that the admission by the Managers of the families of Messrs. Edward Jenkins and F. B. Drummond and posthumous Son of Mr. Charles Jenkins to the benefits of the fund, be confirmed.

Proposed by Mr. Grey, seconded by Mr. Drummond and resolved that Mrs. Smith be assigned a Pension of £223 instead of £82, with retrospective effect from 1854, on the understanding that a further adjustment of her Pension will take place in 1864 when the final distribution of the property of the family is to take place.

No change was considered desirable with regard to Article 7 of the Rules.

An election of Managers for the ensuing year then took place, when Messrs. H. B. Harington, E. Drummond, G. Loch, S. Wauchope and J. A. Crawford were duly elected.

Proposed by Mr. Buckland, seconded by Mr. Browne and resolved that the Accounts be passed.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Chairman.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 28TH JANUARY 1860.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 15th January 1860 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 28th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. II of 1860.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Carriage of Passengers by Sea.

WHEREAS by Section XCIX of an Act of the Imperial Parliament called "The Passengers Act 1855," it is enacted that "it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, from time to time, by any Act or Acts to be passed for that purpose, to declare that this Act or any part thereof shall apply to the carriage of passengers upon any voyage from any Ports or places within the Territories of British India, to be specified in such Act or Acts, to any other places whatsoever, to be also specified in such Act or Acts;" and it is thereby also enacted that "on the passing of such Indian Act or Acts, and whilst the same shall remain in force, all such parts of this Act as shall be adopted therein shall apply to and extend to the carriage of passengers upon such voyages as in the said Indian Act or Acts shall be specified. The provisions of such Indian Act shall be enforced in all Her Majesty's possessions in like manner as the provisions of this Act may be enforced." And whereas it is expedient to make certain parts of the said Act of Parliament applicable to the carriage of Passengers upon the voyages hereinafter specified: It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.
I. The provisions contained in Sections II, III, and IV of this Act (being parts of the said Act of Parliament) are declared applicable to the carriage of Passengers, upon the following voyages:—

Certain Provisions of the Statute made applicable.
Voyages from the Ports of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, to the Mauritius, under Act XV. of 1844.

Voyages from the Ports of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, to Jamaica, British Guiana, and Trinidad, under Act XXI of 1844.

Voyages from the Ports of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, to St. Lucia and Grenada, under Act XXXI of 1855.

Voyages from Ports in British India, to Ports in the Red Sea or Persian Gulf, under Act XXI of 1858.

II. If the Passengers on any such voyage as is specified in the last preceding Section, shall be taken off from the ship carrying such Passengers, or shall be picked up at Sea from any boat, raft, or otherwise, it shall be lawful, if the Port or place to which they shall be conveyed shall be in any of Her Majesty's Colonial possessions, for the Governor of such Colony, or for any person authorized by him for the purpose, or if in any Foreign country, for Her Majesty's Consular Officer at such Port or place therein, to defray all or any part of the expenses thereby incurred.

Governors or Consuls may pay expenses of Passengers taken off a Passenger ship.

III. If any Passenger of any such Passenger ship as aforesaid shall, without any neglect or default of his own, find himself within any Colonial or Foreign Port or place other than that at which he may have contracted to land, it shall be lawful for the Governor of such Colony, or for any person authorized by him for the purpose, or for Her Majesty's Consular Officer at such Foreign Port or place, as the case may be, to forward such Passenger to his intended destination, unless the Master of such ship shall, within forty-eight hours of the arrival of such Passenger, give to the Governor or Consular Officer, as the case may be, a written undertaking to forward or carry on within six weeks thereafter such Passenger to his original destination, and unless such Master shall accordingly forward or carry him on within that period.

Governors or Consuls may send on Passengers, if the Master of the ship fail to do so.

IV. All expenses incurred under the last two preceding Sections or either of them, by or by the authority of such Governor or Consular Officer as aforesaid, including the cost of maintaining the Passengers until forwarded to their destination, and of all necessary beddings, provisions, and stores, shall become a debt to Her Majesty and Her successors from the Owner, Charterer, and Master of such ship, and shall be recoverable from them, or from any one or more of them, at the suit and for the use of Her Majesty, in like manner as in the case of other Crown debts; and a certificate purporting to be under the hand of any such Governor or Consular Officer (as the case may be) stating the total amount of such expenses shall in any suit or other proceeding for the recovery of such debt be received in evidence without proof of the hand-writing or of the Official character of such Governor or Consular Officer, and shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the amount of such expenses, and that the same were duly incurred. Provided nevertheless that in no case shall any larger sum be recovered on account of such expenses than a sum equal to twice the total amount of passage money received by the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Passenger ship or any of them, from or on account of the whole number of Passengers who may have embarked in such ship; which total amount of passage money shall be proved by the defendant if he will have the advantage of this limitation of the debt: but if any such Passengers are forwarded or conveyed to their intended destination under the provisions of the last preceding Section, they shall not be entitled to the return of their passage money, or to any compensation for loss of passage.

Expenses incurred under the two preceding Sections to be a Crown debt.

Passengers forwarded by Governor, &c., not entitled to compensation.

Clerk of the Council.

THE 28TH JANUARY 1860.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 16th January 1860 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 25th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. III OF 1860.

An Act to empower Sessions Judges to pass sentence in certain cases without reference to the Sudder Court.

WHEREAS it is expedient to empower Sessions Judges in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, to pass sentence in certain trials without reference to the Nizamut Adawlut; and whereas it is likewise expedient to remove the restriction now imposed by law upon Sessions Judges in regard to the minimum of punishment which they are competent to inflict in cases of perjury and certain cases of forgery described in Clause 2 Section IX Regulation XVII. 1817; It is enacted as follows:—

I. Clause 3 Section VI and Clause 3 Section IX Regulation XVII. 1817 of the Bengal Code are hereby repealed; and Section IX of the same Regulation, and Section IV Regulation VI. 1832 of the same Code, are hereby modified.

II. When a person is convicted of the crime of rape, if the circumstances of the case shall not appear to call for a more severe punishment than imprisonment for seven years with labor in irons, the Sessions Judge before whom the trial is held shall himself pass sentence.

III. When a person is convicted in a trial held under the provisions of Regulation VI. 1832, of a crime declared by a precedent of the Nizamut Adawlut to be a penal offence, if the circumstances of the case shall not appear to call for a more severe punishment than seven years' imprisonment with labor in irons, the Sessions Judge before whom the trial is held shall himself pass sentence. If, however, the crime of which the person has been convicted has not been declared to be a penal offence by a precedent of the Nizamut Adawlut, the Sessions Judge shall not proceed to pass sentence, but shall refer the case for the consideration of the Nizamut Adawlut, stating at length in the proceedings the opinion of the punchayet, assessors, or jury, and his own opinion, as to the crime proved and the nature and extent of the punishment which should be awarded.

IV. When a person is convicted of the crime of perjury or subornation of perjury or of forgery or of procuring forgery, as defined and made punishable by Regulations II. 1807 and XVII. 1817 of the Bengal Code, the Sessions Judge shall pass such sentence on the offender as he may consider adequate to the offence in reference to the particular circumstances of the case; provided that he shall in no case exceed the limit of the powers vested in him by Clause 2 Section IX of the Regulation last mentioned.

V. If in any case coming under the provisions of this Act, the Sessions Judge shall consider the sentence which he is empowered to pass inadequate to the guilt of the prisoner, he shall refer the case, with his sentiments, for the sentence of the Nizamut Adawlut in conformity to Section VI Act XXXI of 1841, which is hereby declared applicable to such cases.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 4TH FEBRUARY 1860.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honourable the Governor General on the 23rd January 1860 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 4th February 1860), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. IV of 1860.

An Act to amend Act VIII of 1859 (for simplifying the Procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature not established by Royal Charter.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Act VIII of 1859 (for simplifying the Procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature not established by Royal Charter) :
Preamble.
It is enacted as follows :—

I. From and after the passing of this Act so much of the 332nd Section of Act VIII of 1859 as enacts that "If the appeal lie to the Sudder Court it shall be heard and determined by a Court consisting of three or more Judges of that Court," shall be repealed, and in lieu thereof the following shall form portion of the said Section :—

If the appeal lie to the Sudder Court, it shall be heard and determined by a Court consisting of two or more Judges of that Court. If, when the Court shall consist of only two Judges, there is a difference of opinion upon the evidence in cases in which it is competent to the Court to go into the evidence, and one Judge concur in opinion with the Lower Court as to the facts, the case shall be determined accordingly: If in a Court so constituted there is a difference of opinion upon a point of law, the Judges shall state the point upon which they differ, and the case shall be re-argued upon that question before one or more of the other Judges and shall be determined according to the opinion of the majority of the Judges of the Sudder Court by whom the appeal is heard.

II. From and after the passing of this Act the 215th Section of the said Act shall be repealed, and in lieu thereof the following shall be the 215th Section :—

"The Court, on receiving any application for execution of a decree containing the particulars above mentioned or such of them as may be applicable to the case, shall enter a note of the application and the date on which it was made, in the Register of the suit. If it shall be shown to the Court that the particulars do not correspond with the original decree, the Court shall either return the application for correction to the person making it, or shall, with the consent of such person, cause the necessary correction to be made. If the application be admitted, the Court shall order execution of the decree according to the nature of the application."

III. When under the provisions of Section 385 of the said Act the Act is extended to any part of the territories not subject to the general Regulations of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, it shall be lawful for the Government to which the territory is subordinate to declare that the Act shall take effect therein subject to any restriction, limitation, or proviso which it may think proper. In such case the restriction, limitation, or proviso shall be inserted in the declaration or notification of such extension. When the Act is extended by the Local Government to any territory subordinate to such Government and such extension is made subject to any restriction, limitation, or proviso, the previous sanction of the Governor General of India in Council shall be requisite.

M. WYLIE,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 28TH JANUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 28th January 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 1st of April next :—

A Bill to amend Act XXI of 1856 (to consolidate and amend the law relating to the Abkaree Revenue in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to increase the rate of duty levied on spirits manufactured at distilleries worked according to the English method, and otherwise to amend Act XXI of 1856 ; It is enacted as follows :—

I. So much of Section VII Act XXI of 1856 as prescribes that the duty leviable on spirits manufactured at distilleries worked according to the English method, for the imperial gallon of the strength of London proof, shall be one Rupee—is hereby repealed ; and on and after the 21st January 1860 it shall be lawful for the Government to levy the duty as aforesaid at the rate of three Rupees.

II. When any person is sentenced to pay any fine or forfeiture under the said Act, such person in default of payment of the same may be imprisoned by order of the Magistrate for any term not exceeding two months when the amount of the fine or forfeiture shall not exceed fifty Rupees, or for any term not exceeding four months when the amount of the fine or forfeiture shall not exceed two hundred Rupees, or for any term not exceeding six months when the amount of the fine or forfeiture shall exceed two hundred Rupees ; but in any case the imprisonment shall determine upon the payment of the fine or forfeiture adjudged.

III. Every Collector or other Officer is hereby indemnified for any thing done on and after the said 21st of January 1860 in collecting or enforcing the duty leviable under the 1st Section of this Act, or by virtue of any order of Government heretofore made authorizing the levy of any such duty, or in otherwise carrying out this Act ; and no action or other proceeding shall be maintained against any such Collector or other Officer in respect of any thing so done.

IV. This Act and Act XXI of 1856 as hereby amended shall be read as one Act.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 4TH FEBRUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 4th February 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon within a week :—

A Bill to amend Act XIX of 1847 (Articles of War for the Native Army.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the 78th and 112th Articles of War for the Government of the Native Officers and Soldiers in the Military Service; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.
I. There shall be added to the 78th Article of War for the Native Army the words following (that is to say) —
The powers above specified may be conferred on Commanding Officers of Regiments, whenever the Commander-in-Chief of the Presidency to which the Regiment belongs may deem it expedient for the good of the Service so to order. Commanding Officers so empowered may summarily try all offences against any of the Articles of War for the Native Army committed by any Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, or by any Camp-follower, not being a European British subject, under their command; and to sentence such offender on conviction, and to confirm and carry out such sentence without any further authority, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in these Articles of War; provided that such sentence shall not exceed the powers of a District or Garrison Court Martial.

The proceedings on such summary trials by a Commanding Officer shall be recorded in the presence of two or more European or Native Commissioned Officers, in the English language, and in the hand-writing of the Commanding Officer, who shall first make solemn affirmation, duly to administer justice, and the evidence shall be taken on oath or affirmation, and interpreted by a competent Interpreter upon solemn affirmation; and when the Commanding Officer shall have recorded the finding and sentence, and signed the proceedings, his signature to which shall be witnessed by the Officers in whose presence the trial has been conducted, the proceedings shall, without delay, be forwarded to the General Officer Commanding the Division, who is hereby authorized to set aside the trial for reasons based on the merits of the case, but not of a merely technical nature, provided that every sentence so awarded by the Commanding Officer may be carried out without waiting for its approval by the reviewing Officer.

II. There shall be added to the 112th Article of War for the Native Army the words following (that is to say) —
Forfeiture of pay and allowances during confinement under the 112th Article of War.

Provided also that Soldiers subjected to confinement in the Quarter Guard, or Defaulter's Room, or solitary confinement as aforesaid, for any period not exceeding seven days, shall forfeit all claim to pay and allowances during such confinement, and shall receive subsistence only, according to the rates of pay laid down in the Regulations.

M. WYLIE,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 4TH FEBRUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 4th February 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 8th of May next :—

A Bill for facilitating the collection of debts on successions, and for the security of parties paying debts to the representatives of deceased persons.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend certain Acts now in force which provide greater security for persons paying to the representatives of deceased Hindoos, Mahomedans, and others not usually designated as British subjects, debts which are payable in respect of the estates of such deceased persons, and which facilitate the collection of such debts by removing all doubts as to the legal title to demand and receive the same; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.
I. Act XX of 1841 (for facilitating the collection of debts on successions, and for the security of parties paying debts to the representatives of deceased persons) : so much of Act VIII of 1842, as relates to the said Act XX of 1841 : Act X of 1851 (to amend Act XX of 1841, for the administration of personal estate of deceased persons) : and Act VIII of 1851 (to explain and amend Act X of 1851 and Act XX of 1851)—are hereby repealed; except as to certificates granted and acts done under the authority of the said laws before the passing of this Act.

II. No debtor of any deceased person shall be compelled in any Court to pay his debt to any person claiming to be entitled to the effects of any deceased person or any part thereof, except on the production of a certificate to be obtained in manner hereinafter mentioned, or of a probate or letters of administration, unless the Court shall be of opinion that payment of the debt is withheld from fraudulent or vexatious motives, and not from any reasonable doubt as to the party entitled.

III. The District Court within the jurisdiction of which any part of the property of the deceased may be found shall have authority to grant a certificate under this Act. The applicant in his petition shall set forth his title. The Court shall issue notice of application, inviting claimants, and fixing a day for hearing the petition, and upon the appointed day or as soon after as may be convenient shall determine the right to the certificate and grant the same accordingly.

IV. The Certificate of the District Court shall be conclusive of the representative title against all debts to the deceased, and shall afford full indemnity to all debtors paying their debts to the person in whose favor the certificate has been granted.

V. The Court may take such security as it shall think necessary from any person to whom it shall grant a certificate for rendering an account of debts received by him, and for indemnity of persons who may be entitled to the whole or any part of the monies

Certificate how to be obtained.
Effect of certificate.
Court may take security from grantee of certificate.

received by virtue of such certificate whose right to recover the same by regular suit against the holder of the certificate is not affected by this Act.

VI. The granting of such certificate may be suspended by an appeal to the Sudder Court, which Court may declare the party to whom the certificate should be granted, or may direct such further proceedings for the investigation of the title as it shall think fit. The Court may also, upon petition, after a certificate shall have been granted by the District Court, grant a fresh certificate in supersession of the certificate granted by the District Court.

Such fresh certificate shall not affect any payments made to the person to whom any former certificate may have been granted, without notice that the same has been superseded, but shall entitle the person named therein to receive all monies that may have been recovered under the first certificate from the person to whom the same may have been granted.

VII. Every certificate shall give authority to the person to whom the same is granted throughout the Presidency within which the same is granted, and no certificate subsequently granted in respect of the same property shall be valid or effectual, except as herein-after mentioned.

VIII. A person certified as aforesaid may be empowered to receive interest on Government securities and dividends, or on shares of any Bank or parts thereof, and to negotiate such securities. He may be also empowered to receive a share of such interest or dividends, or to negotiate a share of such securities. But these powers shall only arise by express words in the certificate.

IX. In the case of disputes among persons claiming to be jointly entitled to be proprietors of any Government securities as the representatives of any deceased person, the District Court, whenever sufficient cause shall be shown, and on the request of any such claimant, may, so far as concerns the said securities, grant a certificate under this Act to such person as shall be from time to time appointed by the local Government to act as trustee under this Section, and shall specify in such certificate the several persons appearing to him to be such proprietors, and their several shares; and the said trustee by virtue of such certificate shall be entitled to receive and give discharges for the interest accruing due on such securities, and shall account for and pay the sum to the several persons specified in the certificate to be thereunto entitled, according to the shares therein set forth, and shall be empowered to act in all other respects concerning the said securities as agent for such persons, and shall be entitled to receive such commission, not exceeding per centum, on the sums received and paid by him, as the local Government shall think fit. Provided nevertheless that the right of any other person to recover the whole or any part of the monies to be paid by regular suit against all or any of the persons to whom the same have been paid, shall not be affected by this Act.

X. If any such disputes among persons claiming to be proprietors of Government securities are not ended within two years from the date of the certificate granted under the last preceding Section, the said trustee may apportion the principal sum of the said securities rateably among the parties appearing from the certificate to be proprietors thereof, and may apply for and receive new securities from the proper Officer appointed to issue the same in the respective names of the several parties certified to be entitled thereto; provided that such new securities shall be issued only according to the rules in use for the regulation and issue of such Government securities, and the receipt of the said trustee for such new securities, by endorsement on the old securities or otherwise, shall be a legal discharge to the Government against the disputing parties claiming to be entitled to the several amounts for which such securities shall be issued. Provided always that, if the amount of any Government securities in dispute or any part thereof shall not be sufficient to admit of their rateable division according to the rules applicable to the issue of such securities, the said trustee may sell and dispose of the disputed securities, or such part as shall be necessary under this provision, and apportion the proceeds thereof among the parties entitled to receive the same.

Proviso.

XI. Every certificate granted to the trustee appointed under Section IX, shall be taken to supersede and annul any previous certificate so far as such previous certificate relates to the said Government securities.

XII. Where a certificate shall have been granted, in cases in which such certificate would be valid but for the previous grant of a certificate, all payments made to the person holding the latter certificate in ignorance of the grant of the previous certificate, shall be held good against claims under such previous certificate.

XIII. With regard to the property of a deceased Hindoo, Mahomedan, or other person not usually designated by the term "British subject," no certificate in respect of any such property shall be valid if made after a probate or letters of administration granted in respect of the same, provided assets belonging to the deceased were at the time of his death within the local jurisdiction of the Court granting the probate or letters of administration.

XIV. Where a certificate shall have been granted, in cases in which such certificate would be valid but for a probate or letters of administration previously granted, all payments made to the person holding the certificate in ignorance of the previous granting of the probate or letters of administration, shall be held good against claims under the probate or letters of administration so previously granted.

XV. No probate or letters of administration shall be valid for the purpose of the recovery of debts or for the security of debtors, after a certificate granted in respect of the same property for which such probate or letters of administration shall have been granted, provided assets belonging to the deceased were at the time of his death within the jurisdiction of the Court granting such certificate.

Probate or letters void after grant of certificate.

Proviso.

XVI. Where probate or letters of administration may have been granted in cases in which such probate or letters of administration would be valid but for the previous grant of a certificate, all payments made in ignorance of the previous grant of the certificate shall be held good against claims under such previous certificate.

Certain payments under probate or letters, granted after grant of certificate, protected.

XVII. Curators appointed under Act XIX of 1811 who may be invested with certain powers which are conferred on persons obtaining certificates under this Act, shall not exercise any powers which, but for that Act, would lawfully belong to persons obtaining certificates, or to executors or administrators where a certificate, probate, or letters of administration has been actually obtained; but all persons who may have paid debts or rents to a curator authorized by a Court to receive the same, shall be indemnified, and the curator shall be responsible for the payment of the same to the person who has obtained a certificate, the executor, or administrator, as the case may be.

Curators prohibited from exercising certain powers.

XVIII. All probates and letters of administration granted by any Supreme Court of Judicature in cases in which any assets belonging to deceased persons were at the time of their deaths within the local jurisdiction of the Court granting the probate or letters of administration, shall have the effect of probate and letters of administration granted in respect of the property of British subjects, but for the purpose of the recovery of debts only and the security of debtors paying the same, except so far as is in this Act provided.

Effect of probates and letters granted to representatives of persons not usually termed "British subjects."

XIX. A certificate of administration granted by the British Representative accredited to any Foreign Prince or State, shall, as regards the residents within the Territories of such Prince or State, have the same effect in respect to Government securities as a certificate granted to a Native subject of Her Majesty under the provisions hereinbefore contained.

Effect of certificates granted by British representatives in Foreign States.

XX. Every certificate of administration granted under the last preceding Section shall, as regards the Government securities, give authority to the person to whom the same shall be granted throughout the British Territories in India, and have the same effect throughout the said territories as a certificate granted under Section VII of this Act has within the Presidency within which the same is granted.

Local extent of power given by such certificates.

XXI. No certificate granted under this Act shall empower the person certified to negotiate any Government security or share of a Bank or any share of such security, or to receive any interest or dividend due thereon, or any share of such interest or dividend, unless the Government security or Bank share shall be specified in such certificate.

Form of certificate to enable holder to negotiate Government securities or Bank shares.

XXII. Any Court or Officer authorized to grant a certificate, may from time to time extend the same to any Government security or Bank share not originally specified therein, and every such extension shall have the same effect as if the Government security or Bank share to which the certificate shall be extended had been originally specified therein.

Extension of certificate.

XXIII. Upon the extension of a certificate, security may be required in the same manner as upon the original grant of a certificate.

Security upon extension.

XXIV. Nothing in this Act contained shall be held to extend to the property of any person usually designated as a British subject.

Act not to apply to British subjects.

XXV. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the meaning hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction (that is to say)—

Interpretation.

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number.

Number.

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

Gender.

The words "District Court" shall mean the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction of a Zillah or District.

"District Court."

The words "Sudder Court" shall be deemed to include the highest Civil Court of Appeal in any part of the British Territories in India not subject to the control and superintendence of a Sudder Court.

M. WYLIE,

Clerk of the Council.

THE 4TH FEBRUARY 1860.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 31st February 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 5th of April next:—

A Bill to remove certain tracts on the Eastern border of the Chittagong District from the jurisdiction of the tribunals established under the general Regulations and Acts.

WHEREAS it is expedient to remove the Hilly and Forest tracts of country, situated on the Eastern border of the District of Chittagong, from the jurisdiction exercised by the Civil, Criminal, and Revenue Courts and Offices of that District, under the general Regulations and Acts of the Government; It is enacted as follows:—

I. The tracts of country described in the Schedule to this Act are hereby removed from the jurisdiction of the Courts of Civil and Criminal Judicature, and from the control of the Officers of Revenue constituted by the Regulations of the Bengal Code and the Acts passed by the Governor General of India in Council and the Legislative Council of India, as well as from the system of procedure prescribed for the said Courts and Offices by the Regulations and Acts aforesaid; and no Act hereafter passed by the Legislative Council of India relative to the constitution or procedure of the said Courts and Offices shall be deemed to extend to any part of the said tract, unless the same be specially named therein: provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect any case now pending in

CAP. XLI.

An Act to Amend the Act for the better Government of India. (13th August 1859.)

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session holden in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled an Act for the better Government of India: And whereas it has been considered that, under the Enactment in the Fortieth Section of the said Act, the local Governments in India, and Officers intrusted with the charge of Provinces or Districts there respectively, cannot enter into and execute such Contracts and Assurances in India, on behalf of the Secretary of State in Council, as before the commencement of the said Act they were respectively competent to enter into and execute on behalf of the East India Company, and it is expedient to give them such powers: And whereas doubts have arisen as to the proper mode of the Execution of Contracts entered into by the Secretary of State in Council, pursuant to the provision of the said Fortieth Section of the said Act, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed: And whereas it is expedient to alter so much of the Enactment, in the Forty-third Section of the said Act, as relates to the mode of signing and countersigning the Drafts or Orders therein mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows, that is to say,

I. The Governor General of India in Council, the Governor in Council of Port St. George, the Governor in Council of Bombay, the Lieutenant Governor of the North-Western Provinces, now under the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, respectively, or any Officer, for the time being, intrusted with the government, charge, or care of any Presidency, Province, or District in India, subject to such provisions or restrictions as the Secretary of State in Council, with the concurrence of a Majority of Votes at a Meeting, shall from time to time prescribe, are hereby respectively empowered to sell and dispose of all Real and Personal Estate whatsoever in India, for the time being, vested in Her Majesty under the said Act, within the limits of their respective Governments, Provinces, or Districts, or to raise money on any such Real Estate by way of Mortgage, and to make proper assurances for that purpose, and to purchase and acquire any Land or Hereditaments, or any Interest therein, Stores, Goods, Chattels, and other Property in India, within the said respective limits, and to enter into any Contracts whatsoever, within the said respective limits, for the purposes of the said Act, and all Property so acquired shall vest in Her Majesty, for the Service of the Government of India.

II. The Secretary of State in Council may be named as a Party to any such Deed, Contract, or other Instrument, and it shall be sufficient to use the Designation of Secretary of State in Council in such Deed, Contract, or other Instrument, and the same may be expressed to be executed on behalf of the Secretary of State in Council, by or by Order of the Governor General in Council, Governor in Council, Lieutenant Governor of the North-Western Provinces, or other Officer intrusted as aforesaid, but may be executed in other respects, in like manner as other Instruments executed by or on behalf of him or them respectively, in his or their official capacity, and may be enforced by or against the Secretary of State in Council for the time being; and neither the Secretary of State, nor any Member of the Council, nor any Person executing such Deed, Contract, or other Instrument, shall be personally liable in respect thereof, and all Liabilities, Costs, and Damages, in respect thereof, shall be satisfied and paid out of the Revenues of India.

III. Notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act, it shall be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to pay out all or any of the Moneys paid to the Credit of the Account opened under the said Act by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, intituled "The Account of the Secretary of State in Council of India," upon any Drafts or Orders signed by the Accountant General, on the Establishment of the Secretary of State in Council, or by either of the two Senior Clerks in the Department of the said Accountant General, and countersigned in such manner as the Secretary of State in Council shall from time to time order or establish; and any Draft or Order signed and countersigned as aforesaid, or in manner directed by the said Act, shall effectually discharge the Bank of England for all Moneys paid upon the same.

IV. If, before the passing of this Act, any A to validity of Contracts or Assurances shall have been entered into or made on behalf of the Secretary of State in Council, or the Government of India, by any person in India who, previously to the commencement of the said Act, would have been authorized to enter into and make the same on behalf of the East India Company, such Contracts or Assurances shall have the same validity in favour of and against the Secretary of State in Council as they would have had in favour of and against the said Company if made on behalf of the said Company, and if the said Act had not been passed; but neither the Secretary of State, nor any Member of the Council, shall be personally liable in respect of any such Contract or Assurances; and all Liabilities, Costs, and Damages in respect thereof shall be satisfied and paid out of the Revenues of India.

V. All Contracts, purporting to be entered into by the Secretary of State in Council, which shall have been, previous to the passing of this Act, made under the Hands and Seals or Hands of Three or more Members of Council, shall be as valid and effectual, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as the same would have been if Section Forty of the said Act had contained an express Provision that the Contracts to be entered into by the Secretary of State in Council, pursuant to that Act, might be so made; and from and after the passing of this Act all Contracts in Writing, entered into by the Secretary of State in Council, with the concurrence of a Majority of Votes at a Meeting, may be expressed to be made by the Secretary of State in Council, under that Designation, and if such, as if made between private Persons would be by Law required to be made under Seal, may be made, varied, or discharged, under the Hands and Seals of Two Members of the Council, or, if such as if made between private Persons, would be by Law required to be signed by the Parties to be charged therewith, may be made, varied, or discharged, under the Hands of Two Members of the Council; and the Benefit and Liability of such Contracts shall pass to the Secretary of State in Council for the time being.

VI. All Actions, Suits, and Proceedings in any Court of Justice, in respect of any of the matters aforesaid, shall and may be carried on, prosecuted or defended, in the name of the Secretary of State for India in Council.

No 138 of 1860.—Advances of Pay proper, to the extent of three months, are authorized to be issued to Officers of Her Majesty's Forces, on their quitting India to join Regiments or Battalions to which they may be posted at Home or elsewhere.

Such advances are to be noted on the last Pay Certificates furnished to Officers.

No. 139 of 1860.—The services of Captain A. Francis, of the 68th Regiment, Native Infantry, are placed temporarily at the disposal of the Hon'ble the Lieutenant Governor of Bengal.

No. 140 of 1860.—Her Majesty has been pleased to appoint the under-mentioned Gentlemen to be Cadets for the Infantry and Assistant Surgeons in Her Majesty's Indian Military Forces at the Presidency of Bengal; they are accordingly admitted into the Service. OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR-GENERAL
OF THE POST OFFICE IN INDIA,
January 1st, 1859.

THE following Conditions are to be observed in sending Book-Packets by Post:—

1st.—The Postage must be pre-paid in full, by means of Postage Stamps affixed outside the Packet on its cover.

2nd.—Every Packet must be sent either without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides, so as to admit of the enclosures being removed for examination.

3rd.—The Packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment or vellum (to the exclusion, however, of letters whether sealed or open) and the books or other publications, prints, maps, &c., may be either printed, written or plain, or any mixture of the three. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, publication, &c., or of a portion thereof, will be allowed, whether such binding, &c. be loose or attached; as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise) in the case of books; and in short whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter or usually appertains thereto.

4th.—The Packet must not contain any letter, closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor must there be any letter, or any communication of the nature of a letter, written or printed in any such Packet or on its cover. Entries, however, merely stating who sends the book, &c., or to whom it is given, are not regarded as a letter.

5th.—No Book-Packet can be received if it exceeds two feet in length, width, or depth.

6th.—Any Packet which shall not be open at the ends or sides, or shall have any letter or any communication of the nature of a letter written or printed in it or upon its cover will be charged with Letter Postage.

7th.—If a Packet be found to contain any letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other unauthorized enclosure, the letter or enclosure will be taken out and forwarded to the address on the Packet, charged with full Postage as an unpaid letter together with an additional Book-rate; that is, with the Postage chargeable on a Book weighing not more than half a lb the remainder of the Packet, if duly pre-paid with Stamps, will then be forwarded to its address.

8th.—If a Packet be not sufficiently pre-paid with Stamps but nevertheless bear Stamps equal to a single Book-rate, it will be forwarded charged with the deficient Book-Postage together with an additional Book-rate; but any Packet which shall not bear Postage Stamps equal to a single Book-rate will be detained and charged with the Letter Postage.

9th.—No Book-Packet weighing more than three lbs can be sent to or from the East Indies or to New South Wales.

10th.—The Colonial Book-Post extends to those Colonies only which are so marked in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage.

11th.—In no case can a Book-Packet be sent to the Colonies (except at the letter rate of Postage,) through a Foreign Country.

SPECIAL Notice is directed to the subjoined Clauses of Rules, the want of attention to which has occasioned the Post Office much inconvenience.

2nd.—A separate instruction will be required for every change of address, and no instruction will be attended to for more than three months after its receipt.

3rd.—Under Section XXIII, of Act XVII. of 1854, Forward Postage will be charged in addition to all other Postage due or paid thereon upon every letter without exception, which may be re-directed in any Post Office. * For example, if a letter posted in Calcutta and addressed to Hooghly is, under instructions which may have been received from the addressee, re-directed in the Calcutta Post Office and sent to Barrackpore, Forward Postage will be charged in addition to the Postage which would have been due, had the letter been despatched to Hooghly according to its original address.

4th.—The practice of giving instructions to the Officers of the Post Office to intercept and re-direct letters, not only imposes much labor upon them, but in large Offices seriously retards the delivery and despatch of the Mails. A register of instructions regarding changes of address will be kept in every Post Office, but it must be understood, that it is impossible to guarantee that they shall be attended to, except in the case of letters received for delivery.

THERE is only one delivery of letters at the General Post Office on Sundays, and Banghy Parcels are neither received nor despatched on that day.

LETTERS and Newspapers despatched to and from the United Kingdom by private Vessels are liable to the following rates of Postage which must be pre-paid by Stamps.—

	Rs.	As.	Pie.
Letters not exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. in weight	...	0	4 0
Ditto exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. but not exceeding 1 oz.	...	0	8 0

And so on adding 8 annas for each oz. or fraction thereof which includes Inland Postage.

Newspapers not exceeding 4 oz. in weight, 2d. or 10 pie must be pre-paid in cash, and no Inland Postage is required upon such papers.

Parcels conveyed by the above opportunity for the United Kingdom are liable to Letter rates of Postage.

Notice.

THE following Extract of an Order of the Government of India, No. 854, of the 13th July 1855 :—

“ No Public Officer is authorized to send Covers on the Public Service by Post, without payment of Postage, unless he is at the time on active duty and in charge of the Office by virtue of which the privilege is enjoyed. All letters superscribed as ‘ on the Public Service only ’ must, even though the Postage thereon be not paid, be received and opened by the Officer to whom they are addressed, but if any such, or partially paid letter so superscribed, and addressed to any Officer except a Secretary to Government be found when opened, to relate to the private affairs of the Sender, the Postage will be debited to him and he will be further liable to be dealt with under Section XLVII., Act No. XVII. of 1854.

His Honor in Council further directs that unpaid or insufficiently paid letters addressed to any such Officer or Department and not superscribed “ on the Public Service only ” be refused, or if opened that it be at the risk and cost of the opener.”

LETTERS arriving at the Presidency Towns, by Mail Steamers will be immediately sorted for delivery according to the address alone, without any reference to instructions which may have been received regarding change of address; such changes will be left to be discovered by the Delivery Officers, and be corrected in the forward and unclaimed Departments of the Office.

Forward Postage will be charged in addition to all other Postage due or paid thereon, upon every letter, without exception, which may be re-directed in the Post Office.

Letters, &c., received by the Steamer will be delivered at the Window of the Post Office only to parties who have registered their names. Applications to the Post Office on the day of the Steamer's arrival to intercept and re-direct letters, &c., cannot be attended to, as they are found not only to increase much labour but seriously retard the delivery and despatch of the Mails.

ALL Banghy Parcels being registered before despatch it is needless to have a Banghy Parcel specially registered by payment of the Fee of 4 annas as no additional precaution can be taken of a specially Registered Parcel which is not taken in the case of every ordinary Banghy Parcel.

UNDER the orders of Government, no fourth delivery of letters by the Post Office is allowed. Mails which are received by Steamers from Suez at so late an hour in the day as not to admit of the letters being taken out for delivery by 6 p. m. are detained till the following morning, but parties who have registered their names under the usual fee, are entitled to receive their letters and Marseilles Newspapers so soon as the Mails are sorted, and which is generally about 2½ hours after receipt of the Mail, at the Post Office.

THE order exempting Officers with the Army from the payment of forward Postage will cease to have effect from the 1st May 1860, by the Orders of Government.

Forward Newspapers.—Extra or Forward Postage is chargeable on every Newspaper re-directed at the Post Office of original address and forwarded to another Post Office.

MAILS for Akyab, Rangoon, and Moulmein are made up on the 3rd and 19th of each month, for transmission by the Contract Steamers or by Government Vessels, which sail on the morning of the 4th and 20th, unless the Contractors choose to postpone the departure for 18 hours, of which they have the power on making a requisition.

The Calcutta Gazette.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1860.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 4TH FEBRUARY 1860.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 23rd January 1860 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 4th February 1860), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. IV OF 1860.

An Act to amend Act VIII of 1859 (for simplifying the Procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature not established by Royal Charter.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Act VIII of 1859 (for simplifying the Procedure of the Courts of Civil Judicature not established by Royal Charter): It is enacted as follows :—

1. From and after the passing of this Act so much of the 332nd Section of Act VIII of 1859, as enacts that "If the appeal lie to the Sudder Court it shall be heard and determined by a Court consisting of three or more Judges of that Court," shall be repealed, and in lieu thereof the following shall form portion of the said Section :—

If the appeal lie to the Sudder Court, it shall be heard and determined by a Court consisting of two or more Judges of that Court. If, when the Court shall consist of only two Judges, there is a difference of opinion upon the evidence in cases in which it is competent to the Court to go into the evidence, and one Judge concur in opinion with the Lower Courts as to the facts, the case shall be determined accordingly: If in a Court so constituted there is a difference of opinion upon a point of law, the Judges shall state the point upon which they differ, and the case shall be argued upon that question before one or more of the other Judges and shall be determined according to the opinion of the majority of the Judges of the Sudder Court by whom the appeal is heard.

II. From and after the passing of this Act the 215th Section of the said Act shall be repealed, and in lieu thereof the following shall be the 215th Section :—

"The Court, on receiving any application for execution of a decree containing the particulars above mentioned or such of them as may be applicable to the case, shall enter a note of the application and the date on which it was made, in the Register of the suit. If it shall be shown to the Court that the particulars do not correspond with the original decree, the Court shall either return the application for correction to the person making it, or shall, with the consent of such person, cause the necessary correction to be made. If the application be admitted, the Court shall order execution of the decree according to the nature of the application."

III. When under the provisions of Section 385 of the said Act the Extension of Act to Non-Regulation Provinces Act is extended to any part of the territories not subject to the general Regulations of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, it shall be lawful for the Government to which the territory is subordinate to declare that the Act shall take effect therein subject to any restriction, limitation, or proviso which it may think proper. In such case the restriction, limitation, or proviso shall be inserted in the declaration or notification of such extension. When the Act is extended by the Local Government to any territory subordinate to such Government and such extension is made subject to any restriction, limitation, or proviso, the previous sanction of the Governor General of India and Council shall be requisite.

M. WYLIE,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 4TH FEBRUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 4th February 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon within a week :—

A Bill to amend Act XIX of 1817 (Articles of War for the Native Army.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the 78th and 112th Articles of War for the Government of the Native Officers and Soldiers in the Military Service; It is enacted as follows :—

I. There shall be added to the 78th Article of War for the Native Army the words following (that is to say) :—
The powers above specified may be conferred on Commanding Officers of Regiments, whenever the Commander-in-Chief of the Presidency to which the Regiment belongs may deem it expedient for the good of the Service so to order. Commanding Officers so empowered may summarily try all offences against any of the Articles of War for the Native Army committed by any Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, or by any Camp-follower, not being a European British subject, under their command; and to sentence such offender on conviction, and to confirm and carry out such sentence without any further authority, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in these Articles of War; provided that such sentence shall not exceed the powers of a District or Garrison Court Martial.

The proceedings on such summary trials by a Commanding Officer shall be recorded in the presence of two or more European or Native Commissioned Officers, in the English language, and in the hand-writing of the Commanding Officer, who shall first make solemn affirmation duly to administer justice, and the evidence shall be taken on oath or affirmation, and interpreted by a competent Interpreter upon solemn affirmation; and when the Commanding Officer shall have recorded the finding and sentence, and signed the proceedings, his signature to which shall be witnessed by the Officers in whose presence the trial has been conducted, the proceedings shall, without delay, be forwarded to the General Officer Commanding the Division, who is hereby authorized to set aside the trial for reasons based on the merits of the case, but not of a merely technical nature, provided that every sentence so awarded by the Commanding Officer may be carried out without waiting for its approval by the reviewing Officer.

II. There shall be added to the 112th Article of War for the Native Army the words following (that is to say) :—
Forfeiture of pay and allowances during confinement under the 112th Article of War.

Provided also that Soldiers subjected to confinement in the Quarter Guard, or Defaulter's Room, or to solitary confinement as aforesaid, for any period not exceeding seven days, shall forfeit all claim to pay and allowances during such confinement, and shall receive subsistence only, according to the rates of pay laid down in the Regulations.

M. WYLIE,
Clerk of the Council.

THE 4TH FEBRUARY 1860.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 4th February 1860, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 8th of May next :—

A Bill for facilitating the collection of debts on successions, and for the security of parties paying debts to the representatives of deceased persons.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend certain Acts now in force, and to provide greater security for persons paying to the representatives of deceased Hindoos, Mahomedans, and others not usually designated as British subjects, debts which are payable in respect of the estates of such deceased persons, and which facilitate the collection of such debts by removing all doubts as to the legal title to demand and receive the same; It is enacted as follows :—

I. Act XX of 1841 (for facilitating the collection of debts on successions, and for the security of parties paying debts to the representatives of deceased persons) : so much of Act VIII of 1842, as relates to the said Act XX of 1841 : Act X of 1851 (to amend Act XX of 1841, for the administration of personal estate of deceased persons) : and Act VIII of 1851 (to explain and amend Act X of 1851 and Act XX of 1851)—are hereby repealed; except as to certificates granted and acts done under the authority of the said laws before the passing of this Act.

II. No debtor of any deceased person shall be compelled in any Court to pay his debt to any person claiming to be entitled to the effects of any deceased person or any part thereof, except on the production of a certificate so obtained in manner hereinafter mentioned, or of a probate or letters of administration, unless the Court shall be of opinion that payment of the debt is withheld from fraudulent or vexatious motives, and not from any reasonable doubt as to the party entitled.

III. The District Court within the jurisdiction of which any part of the property of the deceased may be found shall have authority to grant a certificate under this Act. The applicant in his petition shall set forth his title. The Court shall issue notice of application, inviting claimants, and fixing a day for hearing the petition, and upon the appointed day or as soon after as may be convenient shall determine the right to the certificate and grant the same accordingly.

IV. The Certificate of the District Court shall be conclusive of the representative title against all debtors to the deceased, and shall afford full indemnity to all debtors paying their debts to the person in whose favor the certificate has been granted.

V. The Court may take such security as it shall think necessary from any person to whom it shall grant a certificate for rendering an account of debts received by him, and for indemnity of persons who may be entitled to the whole or any part of the monies received by virtue of such certificate whose right to recover the same by regular suit against the holder of the certificate is not affected by this Act.

VI. The granting of such certificate may be suspended by an appeal to the Sudder Court, which Court may declare the party to whom the certificate should be granted, or may direct such further proceedings for the investigation of the title as it shall think fit. The Court

Sudder Court may grant fresh certificate in supersession of the certificate granted by the District Court.

Such fresh certificate shall not affect any payments made to the person to whom any former certificate may have been granted, without notice that the same has been superseded, but shall entitle the person named therein to receive all monies that may have been recovered under the first certificate from the person to whom the same may have been granted.

VII. Every certificate shall give authority to the person to whom the same is granted throughout the Presidency within which the same is granted, and no certificate subsequently granted in respect of the same property shall be valid or effectual, except as hereinafter mentioned.

VIII. A person certified as aforesaid may be empowered to receive interest on Government securities and dividends, or on shares of any Bank or parts thereof, and to negotiate such securities. He may be also empowered to receive share of such interest or dividends, or to negotiate a share of such securities. But these powers shall only arise by express words in the certificate.

IX. In the case of disputes among persons claiming to be jointly entitled to be proprietors of any Government securities as the representatives of any deceased person, the District Court, whenever sufficient cause shall be shown, and on the request of any such claimant, may, so far as concerns the said securities, grant a certificate under this Act to such person as shall be from time to time appointed by the local Government to act as trustee under this Section, and shall specify in such certificate the several persons appearing to him to be such proprietors, and their several shares; and the said trustee by virtue of such certificate shall be entitled to receive and give discharges for the interest accruing due on such securities, and shall account for and pay the sum to the several persons specified in the certificate to be thereunto entitled, according to the shares therein set forth, and shall be empowered to act in all other respects concerning the said securities as agent for such persons, and shall be entitled to receive such commission, not exceeding per centum, on the sums received and paid by him, as the local Government shall think fit. Provided nevertheless that the right of any other person to recover the whole or any part of the monies so paid by regular suit against all or any of the persons to whom the same have been paid, shall not be affected by this Act.

X. If any such disputes among persons claiming to be proprietors of Government securities are not ended within two years from the date of the certificate granted under the last preceding Section, the said trustee may apportion the principal sum of the said securities rateably among the parties appearing from the certificate to be proprietors thereof, and may apply for and receive new securities from the proper Officer appointed to issue the same in the respective names of the several parties certified to be entitled thereto; provided that such new securities shall be issued only according to the rules in use for the regulation and issue of such Government securities, and the receipt of the said trustee for such new securities, by endorsement on the old securities or otherwise, shall be a legal discharge to the Government against the disputing parties claiming to be entitled to the several amounts for which such securities shall be issued. Provided always that,

Provido. if the amount of any Government securities in dispute or any part thereof shall not be sufficient to admit of their rateable division according to the rules applicable to the issue of such securities, the said trustee may sell and dispose of the disputed securities, or such part as shall be necessary under this provision, and apportion the proceeds thereof among the parties entitled to receive the same.

XI. Every certificate granted to the trustee appointed under Section IX, shall be taken to supersede and annul any previous certificate so far as such previous certificate relates to the said Government securities.

XII. Where a certificate shall have been granted, in cases in which such certificate would be valid but for the previous grant of a certificate, all payments made to the person holding the latter certificate in ignorance of the grant of the previous certificate, shall be held good against claims under such previous certificate.

XIII. With regard to the property of a deceased Hindoo, Mahomedan, or other person not usually designated by the term "British subject," no certificate in respect of any such property shall be valid if made after a probate or letters of administration granted in respect of the same, provided assets belonging to the deceased were at the time of his death within the local jurisdiction of the Court granting the probate or letters of administration.

XIV. Where a certificate shall have been granted, in cases in which such certificate would be valid but for a probate or letters of administration previously granted, all payments made to the person holding the certificate in ignorance of the previous granting of the probate or letters of administration, shall be held good against claims under the probate or letters of administration so previously granted.

XV. No probate or letters of administration shall be valid for the purpose of the recovery of debts or for the security of debtors, after a certificate granted in respect of the same property for which such probate or letters of administration shall have been granted, provided assets belonging to the deceased were at the time of his death within the jurisdiction of the Court granting such certificate.

Probate or letters void after grant of certificate.

Proviso.

XVI. Where probate or letters of administration may have been granted in cases in which such probate or letters of administration would be valid but for the previous grant of a certificate, all payments made in ignorance of the previous grant of the certificate shall be held good against claims under such previous certificate.

Certain payments under probate or letters, granted after grant of certificate, protected.

XVII. Curators appointed under Act XIX of 1811 who may be invested with certain powers which are conferred on persons obtaining certificates under this Act, shall not exercise any powers which, but for that Act, would lawfully belong to persons obtaining certificates, or to executors or administrators where a certificate, probate, or letters of administration has been actually obtained; but all persons who may have paid debts or rents to a curator authorized by a Court to receive the same, shall be indemnified, and the curator shall be responsible for the payment of the same to the person who has obtained a certificate, the executor, or administrator, as the case may be.

Curators prohibited from exercising certain powers.

XVIII. All probates and letters of administration granted by any Supreme Court of Judicature in cases in which any assets belonging to deceased persons were at the time of their deaths within the local jurisdiction of the Court granting the probate or letters of administration, shall have the effect of probate and letters of administration granted in respect of the property of British subjects, but for the purpose of the recovery of debts only and the security of debtors paying the same, except so far as is in this Act provided.

Effect of probates and letters granted to representatives of persons not usually termed "British subjects."

XIX. A certificate of administration granted by the British Representative accredited to any Foreign Prince or State, shall, as regards the residents within the Territories of such Prince or State, have the same effect in respect to Government securities as a certificate granted to a Native subject of Her Majesty under the provisions hereinbefore contained.

Effect of certificates granted by British representatives in Foreign States.

XX. Every certificate of administration granted under the last preceding Section shall, as regards the Government securities, give authority to the person to whom the same shall be granted throughout the British Territories in India, and have the same effect throughout the said territories as a certificate granted under Section VII of this Act has within the Presidency within which the same is granted.

Local extent of power given by such certificates.

XXI. No certificate granted under this Act shall empower the person certified to negotiate any Government security or share of a Bank or any share of such security, or to receive any interest or dividend due thereon, or any share of such interest or dividend, unless the Government security or Bank share shall be specified in such certificate.

Form of certificate to enable holder to negotiate Government securities or Bank shares.

XXII. Any Court or Officer authorized to grant a certificate, may from time to time extend the same to any Government security or Bank share not originally specified therein, and every such extension shall have the same effect as if the Government security or Bank share to which the certificate shall be extended had been originally specified therein.

Extension of certificate.

XXIII. Upon the extension of a certificate, security may be required in the same manner as upon the original grant of a certificate.

Security upon extension.

XXIV. Nothing in this Act contained shall be held to extend to the property of any person usually designated as a British subject.

Act not to apply to British subjects.
